

Man Investments

Dedicated to alternative investments

Man Investments is a world leading independent asset manager dedicated solely to alternative investing. It offers investors access to a wide range of alternative investment portfolios that target strong, stable capital growth through the market cycle. The business currently has USD 43.8 billion of assets under management.

Established in 1983, it is part of Man Group plc – a FTSE 100 Index constituent – which can trace its origins back more than 225 years.

Asset management

Man Investments' multi-manager business provides access to a range of global hedge funds* on either a standalone basis or in blended portfolios engineered to maximise performance and manage risk. By virtue of its long-standing industry presence and excellent reputation, the business is able to access sought after capacity with many of the best performing strategies on behalf of its investors.

Separately, AHL, Man Investments' industry leading quantitative investment manager, operates independently and is an integral part of the client offering. Founded in 1987, AHL has established itself as a world leader in systematic trading strategies, with an enviable track record supported by its strong commitment to ongoing research and development.

Key attributes

Strength – through performance, risk management and governance

Man Investments has developed into one of the world's most credible alternative investment businesses through its commitment to delivering superior investment returns for its investors while managing associated risks. Crucially, a large risk management team, with exceptional resources and experience, sits at the heart of the business and encourages rigour in all investment practices. Additionally, Man Investments actively embraces the robust capital and governance structures expected of a FTSE 100 company.

Expertise – unrivalled industry experience and depth of knowledge

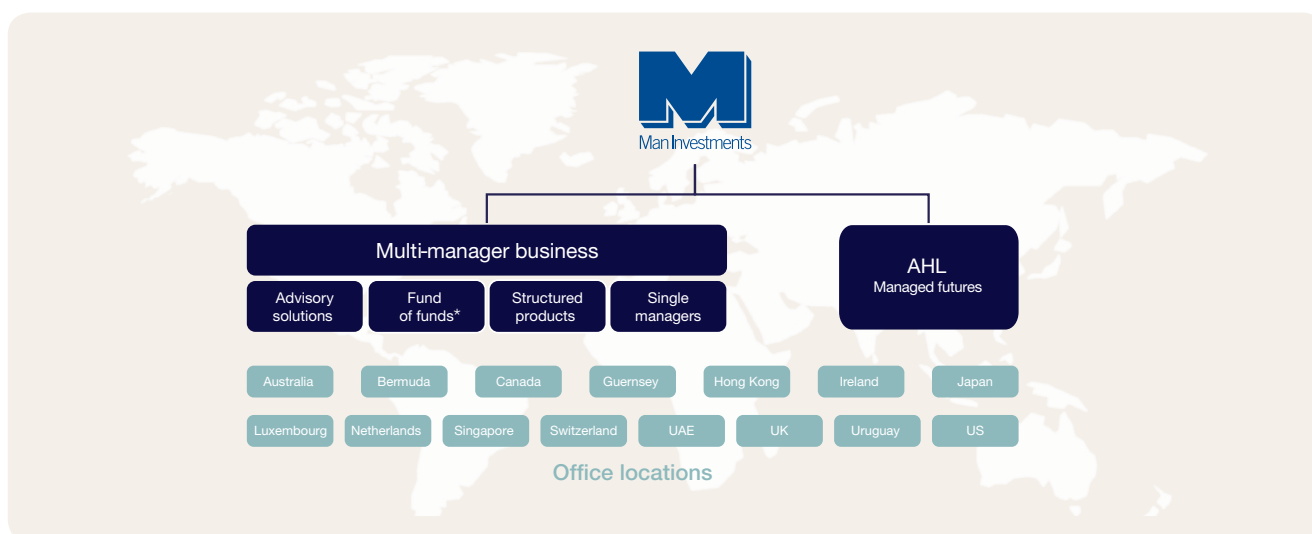

A deep pool of experienced and talented investment professionals underpins every aspect of the business from investment management to client service. This is backed by Man Investments' strong product development and structuring capabilities, together with its commitment to transparency and greater control over invested assets, largely achieved through its established managed account platform.

Partnership – long-term relationships through flexibility and choice

Investors are able to access Man Investments' portfolios through a diverse and adaptable range of investment vehicles. This includes advisory solutions, fund of fund portfolios*, structured solutions and funds tailored to the specific requirements of regional markets. This comprehensive and flexible range of investment vehicles means that Man Investments is capable of delivering solutions to meet a wide range of investor requirements.

Positioned for the future

As a business with a long and impressive history, a strong balance sheet, substantial assets under management and an extensive and diversified client base, Man Investments is ideally placed to build on its position of strength and actively invest for the future.
